Amendment in Institutional Policy For Sessional Question Paper

Pharmacy Institute has done the following amendment in the sessional question paper pattern as per the University guidelines. The remaining guidelines should be followed as per previous notification of Institute policy dated 06/08/2012. The newly modified pattern is following:

There will be three separate section (section A, B and C) for the question paper. The question paper will be of maximum 20 marks for all undergraduate courses. Section A will contain 3 questions of two marks each and section B and C will contain two questions of three and four marks respectively. The faculty members are free to give choices in the section as per their wishes. The question papers should be uniformly distributed as per the syllabus completed. The sample copy is attached.
